

ALFA International Launches Data Privacy & Cybersecurity Practice Group

ALFA International is pleased to announce the launch of its Data Privacy & Cybersecurity Practice Group.

With a trusted network of 140 law firms across the United States and more than 70 countries, ALFA International can provide tailored multi-jurisdictional legal support to help businesses safeguard sensitive and personal data, comply with global data privacy laws and effectively prepare for and respond to cybersecurity threats.

The legal services offered by the Data Privacy & Cybersecurity Practice Group include:

- Advising on global privacy compliance and data governance
- Leading comprehensive legal responses to cybersecurity incidents and data breaches
- Providing legal representation in privacy litigation and regulatory enforcement defense
- Offering guidance on compliance, risk management, and internal policy development
- Legal structuring and review for technology transactions
- Developing customized privacy and security training
- Providing support during audit and regulatory inquiries

The attorneys in the Data Privacy & Cybersecurity Practice Group include IAPP-certified professionals (CIPP/US, CIPT, FIP, AIGP) and ISO 27001-accredited advisors.

Whether launching a new product, responding to a breach or preparing for a privacy audit, ALFAI is your trusted legal partner in data protection and cybersecurity law.
