Taylor, Day, Grimm & Boyd Receives ALFA International's 2025 Law Firm of the Year Award

During the ALFA International (ALFAI) Annual Business Meeting (ABM) in Madrid, Spain, on October 9, Taylor, Day, Grimm & Boyd (Taylor Day), ALFAI's member firm in Jacksonville, FL, received the 2025 Law Firm of the Year Award. This accolade recognizes Taylor Day's commitment and leadership within the ALFAI network over the past year.

Taylor Day has been a dedicated member of ALFAI since joining the network in 2006. The firm's attorneys actively participate in many of ALFAI's practice groups, including Business Litigation, Construction, Future Leaders, Insurance, Product Liability & Complex Torts, Transportation, and Workers' Compensation.

Additionally, the firm has played a vital role in ALFAI's leadership for many years. This October, Chris Mueller was elected to the ALFAI Board of Directors. He also completed his term as Chair of the Construction Practice Group this past July and now serves as the group's Chair Emeritus. John Osgathorpe is currently a member of the ALFAI-wide Marketing Committee and the Finance and Investment Committee, as well as the Chair of the Business Litigation Practice Group and a member of the Managing Partners Forum. Job Fickett is currently serving as the 2026 Program Chair for the Future Leaders Practice Group.

Beyond their leadership roles, the firm excels in its business development efforts within the network.

Jessica Zaroski Bauer, ALFAI's CEO, stated, "The ALFAI network has greatly benefitted from the time, talent, and leadership of Taylor Day attorneys. The firm's forward-thinking perspective has helped ALFAI remain competitive in this ever-evolving legal landscape. We are proud to present Taylor Day with ALFAI's 2025 Law Firm of the Year Award."
